St. Helena Cathedral, Helena, Montana, is modeled after the Cologne Cathedral in Germany, in Gothic style, from plans by Von Herbulis, European architect. Completed in 1926, at a cost of about one million dollars, its construction was made possible by gifts from the Cruse family, and parish members.

DISTRIBUTED & PHOTOGRAPHED BY LAURETTA STUDIO, BUTTE, MONT.
(MR. & MRS. A. WALKUP)

"Spectra-Color"
POSTCARD

STAMP
HERE